“ Uncle Luck was a special kind of man and no one could or will ever compare. Always met you with that smile. Oh My, That Laugh, Infectious! He was the next closest to my dad,...He will always hold a special place deep in in my heart. Uncle Luck, ascended in to Heaven & joined my dad and collected his wings. Both gone too soon.....

Aunt Becky, Derrick, Rod, Tina, I am praying for you and the family, for your comfort, your peace, your strength and for your heart's understanding where only God can provide. Blessings To You All. I love you guys.

I remember the very first time I met Cousin Luck it was at the very first Caldwell family reunion in Montgomery Alabama in 1979, he was then as he was until he departed this earthly realm a kind and loving father, a great husband. He blessed me by being in his company. RIH cousin luck.
