“ I am so very sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort embrace you with peace and hope during this difficult time. Rev 21:4

Ms Laverne - November 15, 2018 at 02:59 PM

“ Freeman came to me the night he paused to heaven. He smiled and gave me a big thumbs up. And I found out the news Freeman was home the next day.

Freeman visited Minnesota once to visit us. I had my dog Bailey. Bailey was my protector and she didn't like any one much but me. She would stand on her back legs and hug me with her front legs and rest her head on my hip. Well she did the same thing to Freeman. The best judge of a person I have always thought is what a dog thinks about you. Well my Bailey only did that to two people. Me and Freeman. She loved Freeman straight up. Never did I ever see her do that again except to me. I think that says all you need to know about Freeman. No other words are necessary. We will miss him terribly but we know we will find our way home soon too. They don't make people like Freeman anymore. May Avis have peace in knowing the gift she had in her life and that we all who believe in Jesus Christ as our savior we will be home soon. No more tears. No more death. No more illness. Only peace in the home we were made for.
