“ U been apart of my life since before I was born. You originally where my older sister's Godfather and when I was conceived there was a big hoopla about Mama and Daddy trying to pick godparents for me but you and Mama Mag said wait a min you can't take him away from us, it's our chance to get a boy!! Lol growing up in church down the street was amazing because anytime I needed a break or just was bored at church your door was always open even those late nights mama and auntie Alicia was working in the church office I could just walk down the alley and go to my Godparents house and usually you were sitting in the yard or working in the garden and even cooking in the kitchen. When my daddy passed away you sat me down and helped me come to grips with that heavy loss and I told me I still had another daddy here for me. You and my daddy did so many things alike until you almost were one person lol but just the conversations we had and the inspiration you gave helped me so much now you're gone and I have no more Daddy left on top of it all I just became a father and yes of course I had a girl but don't worry I'm not scared as long as I follow the blueprint that my Father's left me I'll be ok. I love you Daddy and I'm going to miss you ❤️ 100”

“ William, your sunset came when I was not prepared. I will always remember your smile and the kind, gentle manner in which you could stop a disagreement between your cousins and leave them laughing. Goodbye for now, until my sunset. Always in my heart, Cousin Claudine

“ William was more than a brother-in-law-he was family in every sense. I will always remember his gentle smile and the laugh that could make everyone else laugh. Our family in Cincinnati called him Big Daddy, and he could always laugh at himself. He had a way of saying the darndest things, often without trying, and it made being around him feel easy. He was a devoted husband and loved his girls deeply. The joy and love he brought into our family will stay with us always. Send me a number Big daddy
