“ I absolutely love the walker family! Mr. Bill and Mary Walker have been one of my favorite families since the day I met Mary. I know Mr. Bill through my second Mom Mary Walker who became an amazing part of my life after my mom's passing we met. Each year, Mary and I always exchange birthday gifts (our birthdays are just days a part). I was knocking at the door and Mr. Bill came to the door saying, "Why didn't you let yourself through the door with your key?" He open the door as was like Oh, no wonder you not Mary...lol. I had called that day and was in the neighborhood and just knew someone was at the house to receive her gifts. Mr. Bill was much like my father some what quiet kind of man that was pleasant and never said too much but hello when I came to the house. My favorite story well there is several favorite stories I have of Bill and Mary Walker, but I will share just one more. It was that time of the year when I dropped off food and gifts to Mary Walker then left; I called her later and ask how did she enjoy the food? She said that Bill and I was talking when she said, "Bill, OMG this is what pumpkin pie taste like? Bill said, "No Mary I think that pie is sweet potato pie." She said no Bill that container said pumpkin. She told me, "Daughter that pie was good." I said thank you... I know you love some sweet potato pie. She said, "No that was pumpkin pie...hahaha. I said, "Mary I baked a sweet potato pie and was out of containers to place your pie,so I put it in a container that said pumpkin. Bill said, " I knew it was sweet potato pie. That girl can cook...do she know how good she can cook? Mary said yea my baby can cook; her Daddy is older and she cooks for him. The two of them together was an unstoppable force of love and laughter. My life is fuller and richer from knowing them both. My prayers and condolences goes to my wonderful Mary Walker and the entire Walker family. William "Bill" Walker will be missed by many.
