

Mr. Willie Louis Bohler

September 12, 1934 - May 6, 2018

In Loving Memory Of Willie Louis Bohler:

Willie Louis Bohler was born on September 12, 1939 in Aiken, South Carolina to William Bohler and Hattie Mae Hammond.

Much of Willie's early life is not all clear and he met Marjorie Irene McGrier in early 1959. He was raised in a Christian home, but converted to Islam early as an adult. He later in life returned to his original Christian values as the Bible says: Train a child up in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6

He worked for Ford Motor Company during the upheaval of the Detroit riots and experienced serious illness. During this battle he separated from his wife and worked for Henry Ford Hospital. During that time he also attended college for physical therapy aspiring a medical career. Later his lifelong struggle with mental illness prevented him from completing that goal.
