“ well Joe we worked together for over 25 years and you always made me laugh at the way we worked together - it's alright that you got mad at me for not getting you pizza when the outside contractors brought them in for all of us workers at lunch time but if you remember I was the relief man and was on a tight schedule - lol - but I remember the day you retired and everyone was telling you don't go - we were all messing with you cause we knew then we were going to miss the good times we all had together and the laughs we got from you- it is with sincere emotion that I want to say it was a pleasure for all the good times we had together- you will live on in our memories - you will be missed - rest in peace brother
