“ Thank you, Lord, for your graceful gift of the many years You gave me to spend time with my cousin Turk. This was the name we gave him as a child, and it stuck with him all his life by family members. As a child we shared time playing baseball and skateboarding. Turk was always particular about his appearance and who he associated with. And he didn't mind letting you know how he felt. In spite of this we had a good time together and loved one another. I will miss our small chats. Peace be with you. Love, Betty Louise
