“ Richard was one of my favorite cousins. He was loving and kind, and I could talk to him about most anything. He always gave good advice and had a good listening ear. One thing I remember about Richard is that he loved to have fish cookouts and I loved eating the fish he cooked. The fondest memory I have about Richard is that he taught me how to drive. Before Henry Ruff Road by my mom's house was paved, that's where Richard took me to learn how to drive. It almost seems like yesterday. Rest In Peace Richard, you will be truly missed!

*Love,
Edna*
