Mr. Robinson lived a long life and was so upbeat when I met him I couldn't believe his age. God plucked another flower 🌹 to add to his vase to adore. You will be missed by your family and friends, may you Rest in Paradise ~ Gladys Pearson aka butterfly

“Da, even in your passing, I heard that mighty whistle blow you used to whistle to call my name. That memorable night I couldn't go to bed but instead, rushed to your side leaving my family while they were sleeping because I just didn't want to leave you alone. A feeling just came over me, I just couldn't ignore. It was like God sent me to you to have one last night with you and that's just what it was. I'm very thankful he led me to you, because I now have closer and feel so relieved I didn't leave you alone in your final hour. I will cherish the memories you and I shared for the rest of my life. I couldn't be more happy that you are now at peace. It was hard leaving you each time I visited the nursing home. I kept thinking to myself, will he be there when I return? Now you are at peace and I'm glad I had a chance to spend one last night with my dad which is why I chose, "Dance with my father" by Luther Vandross and your son Willie Jr. will do the honors at your funeral Monday, June 13, 2016. Rest well father, for as long as I live, your legacy will live on throughout my family as I continue to raise and do the very best I can with my kids as I am the end of your bloodline.

“ The many memories that we share together will get me through all those tough days. Knowing you are in better place eases my mind and it's so comforting to know that you went in peace. Being able to hold your hand all night and telling you how much I love you gave me so much to be thankful for. I thank God for you and the life you shared with me grandad. Words can't describe just how much I will miss your smile, laughter, jokes and yes, those many trips to the store that we all worth it. I love you with all of my being. Continue to rest in heaven with grandma and the rest of our loved ones that have passed on and I know one day we will see each other again.

Love Always,

Your GD,

Tessa
