

Ms. Willie Mae Thompson

June 11, 1943 - December 25, 2015

Her Journey:

Willie Mae Thompson was born on June 11, 1943 in Jackson, Mississippi to Bill Hardy (deceased) and Beatrice Finley (deceased). There is where she received her early education. She moved and remained in Detroit, Michigan. She then furthered her education at Mercy College of Detroit where she received her Bachelor of Arts Degree. She then went on to take a position at Smart Transportation, where she remained until her retirement.

Willie Mae loved spending time with her family. She was an avid bowler (you could tell by her huge display of trophies). She also loved traveling and being with her social CB club where she was affectionately given the name Heavy Hips.

Willie Mae dedicated her life to Christ and found a home at Caring Temple M.B.C. She was a very active member who enjoyed listening to and singing in the choir. She was a great humanitarian and her greatest joy was helping others. Which is why taking the lead in helping feed the community every month at the church food pantry was a great way for her to serve.

Apart from that she would make her own chicken soup, pack up her truck and go to Cass Corridor to feed the homeless. Willie Mae raised her children with those same values, teaching them the meaning of giving to others in their time of need. One word comes to mind when thinking of Willie Mae and that is STRONG. Her strength is what we will be able to draw from whenever we need to.

“ My sympathy to the family. Death claims the lives of those dear to us. Mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief and numbness that can result from the death of a loved one. May you find comfort in knowing that God promises that the dead will live again.-Isaiah 26:19

May you find peace during this difficult time as you reflect on how caring our heavenly father is towards those who mourn as well as the hope he extends to all. (Rev 21:4) I am so very sorry for your loss.
