

Mr. Winston Arrington, Sr.

November 21, 1943 - June 12, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Winston Arrington, Sr.:

Winston Arrington Sr. was born on November 21, 1943 in Pavo, Georgia to Henderson and Amelia Arrington. Winston attended the Ionia/Pavo Public Schools system.

Winston Arrington Sr. attended school and worked on the family farm. In later years, the family moved from Pavo to Thomasville, where Winston met and fell in love with the woman of his life, Frances McMillan. They got married and moved to Detroit. Winston got a job with Ford Motor Company and worked there for 32 years as a glassman until retirement in 1999.

Winston accepted Christ at an early age.

Winston joined Zion Hope Baptist Church shortly after moving to Detroit where he was a faithful and dutiful member until he got sick and could no longer attend.

Winston Arrington had a passion for music. He purchased a guitar and taught himself how to play.

Winston Arrington was always a very quiet and shy kind of guy, but once you got him talking, he had the greatest sense of humor. What a wonderful husband and father he was.

Winston Arrington departed this life on June 12, 2017.
