“ My heart and prayers are with Wyatt's ENTIRE family, his children, sister and his neighborhood/village sisters & brothers, friends. I pray you will rejoice knowing he is not suffering, nor is he in pain anymore. He has claimed his place at God's table that was prepared for him. He is smiling with all of you, giving and feeling the LOVE of his legacy.

“ I had Wyatt as a patient a few times. we had nice talks and considered him one of my favorite :) I really cared about him. we talked about his family a lot. He was very sweet, kindle, gentle. He never complained and I know he went through a lot . I look forward to seeing him once again, on the other side of this life.
