Wynlown Williams Booth was born on April 27, 1947 in Drew, Mississippi to the late W.C. Williams and Anna L. Hearon Williams. She departed this life on Friday, December 15, 2023.

Wyndy, as she was fondly known, moved with her family to Detroit, MI when she was 3 years old. She attended public school there and graduated from Commerce High School. After graduation she attended college in Wisconsin. Wyndy returned to Detroit where she worked for Playboy for 2 years. She then moved to Seattle Washington where she was employed as a receptionist for a brokerage firm. In 1975, Wyndy returned to Detroit where she met her forever love, Harold Braden Booth. They both loved God and were devoted members of Oak Grove AME church until their health prevented frequent attendance. During their marriage Wyndy operated her own medical claim processing company. After retirement she actively supported her husband with his consulting firm.

Wyndy enjoyed life and all it had to offer. She was an avid shopper and loved dressing her best. She was truly a fashionista! Designer clothing, shoes and handbags were staples in her wardrobe and Harold allowed her to indulge. Wyndy also loved traveling, entertainment, Broadway shows and fine dining.
