

Ms Yvonne Clarice Rush

September 14, 1944 - February 20, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Yvonne Clarice Wynn-Rush:

Yvonne C. Rush was born on September 14, 1944 in Detroit, Michigan, the only child of the late Rev. Robert C. Wynn and Rosa L. Brent Wynn-Williams. She was the delight of their lives. Yvonne graduated from Detroit Public Schools and, because education was a benchmark of her family, she went on to higher education. Yvonne earned a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Master's in Education from Wayne State University; she was a PhD Candidate in Educational Administration at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

In September 1964, Yvonne was united in marriage to James Rush; they had no living children. The marriage ended in divorce but, in later years they became companions again and renewed a loving friendship.

Yvonne was well-educated, self-directed with great integrity and an uncommonly strong work ethic. Highly skilled in written and oral communications, she became a grant-writing machine for many professional, civic and faith-based organizations. Her many successful grants regularly funded various outreach programs for thousands of children, youth and their families over the years as part of the national "No Child Left Behind" mandate. Other grants provided services to seniors and programs to address maternal and child health care and the scourge of HIV/AIDS.

Her mother, Rosa L. Wynn-Williams, was an educator and her father, Rev. Robert C. Wynn, was a minister. Yvonne was a preacher's kid. In addition to being highly educated, she was steeped in Christian ministry and was actively involved in the church all of her life. She was a cornerstone member of the Conant Avenue United Methodist Church where she served passionately in many ministries, mostly in leadership positions, including the United Methodist Women, Christian Education Director, Sunday School superintendent, Board of Discipleship Ministry, Senior Ministry and other work in the church. She was directly responsible for the ADAPT (Advancing Development of Pediatric Training) program.

She was affiliated with many civic, cultural and community organizations including: the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History, Foundation of the Museum of African American History, Delta Manor - Senior Living Residence, Detroit Links and Linkages Coalition, Lakeside Chautauqua in Ohio, Metropolitan Christian Council of Detroit/Windsor, National Conference of Artists, Southeastern Michigan HIV/AIDS Council and others. She was a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority - Detroit Alumnae Chapter. Yvonne was known for her gift of gab, good humor and her warm, loving heart - unselfish in serving God and humanity.

Also known for her great love for all things African, especially African Art and clothing, it is entirely fitting that she passed during Black History month. She proudly wore her African garb in life and so she leaves in one. This dedicated, committed and competent Christian woman met life head-on with love, humor and great self-esteem.

“ *I just learned of Yvonne's passing today (as I was doing volunteer work at Hotel Lakeside).
I will always remember Yvonne for her wonderful, bubbly personality and for her devotion to God and to God's people. I was fortunate to serve on the Lakeside Education Advisory Team with Yvonne and loved her breadth of knowledge. Each time we met we would hug as we greeted each other. And, yes, I loved her wardrobe so it was good to know that folks' last image of her would have been in one of her colorful African outfits. She brought smiles wherever she went and I am certain that continues in heaven.*

Yvonne was a wonderful woman, a beautiful soul. I only knew her through work and she was always a joy to work with. I enjoyed talking with her and partaking of her wisdom and her laughter. May her spirit fly high and may her soul rest in peace.

“ Aunty Yvonne. Soror Yvonne. In popular culture, it was Erykah Badu who showed young women of the diaspora how to rock an African head wrap along with their everyday wear. But for me, it was Yvonne Rush who encouraged me to do so. She was the American woman who introduced herself to me as my aunt, my father’s sister, when I was almost in middle school. I wondered how it was that my father, George, had a sister I never knew of. And how my West African father had a sister with an American accent. As I grew older, I came to understand that Yvonne was not my aunt by blood, but rather by bond. She was there in comfort as I cried upon learning that my Grandpa Sam was headed back to Ghana and that I may never see him again. She was there on my wedding day to remind me that the ancestors would protect my union too. I don’t know if I ever said “Thank you” for being my aunt. But, I’m saying it now and I know she can hear me...Thank you Aunty Yvonne. I love you. Rest in Peace.

Love, Boatemaa Ntiri-Reid (and on behalf of Lawrence Reid, Ellington Ntiri-Reid and Shana, Peter, Yaa, Kwame and Ama Ansong-Manu).

“ Yvonne Rush will never be forgotten by all of us who pledged Delta Sigma Theta with her in 1968 at Wayne State University's Tau Chapter. We , of the Fine Line of 29, knew that she was a rare and unique individual. She got us organized; she was our cheerleader and motivator.

Gifted and talented, Intelligent, and full of enthusiasm, Yvonne loved life! Generous to a fault, she would give you her last dime. She touched our lives, those of her many students, friends, co-workers, her family and even strangers.

Always marching to the beat of her own drum, Yvonne was a Christian woman! Now that she is with our Lord and Savior in Heaven, He will greet her with, "Well done though good and faithful servant! Your task on earth may be complete, but your legacy will live on!

“ Robert Thomas,

It is always sorrowful to know someone's Mother has transformed from us... Albeit, she will be here with you, forever... My Mom transitioned 15 years ago and just last night I thought of one of her many idiosyncrasies and it brought laughter to me... Please know that you will have forever memories of your Mom. Smile often and be strong, all ways.
