In Loving Memory of

Zenola Hughes, affectionately known as “Nola” to her loved ones, born January 27, 1954, to Joanne Simmons (Carter) and Frank Simmons in Detroit, MI.

“Nola” accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful member at Aijalon Missionary Baptist church for many years. Later, she served at El Shaddai Missionary Baptist Church and Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church, where she served until the Lord called her home.

In 1972, she graduated from Chadsey High School in Detroit, MI. She attended Jackson State University and Wayne County Community College, where she earned an Associate Degree of Nursing in 1979. She was also employed by the City of Detroit for 30+ years as a supervisor in Waste water Treatment facility.

“Nola” was joined in Holy Matrimony to Bruce Hughes, in 1979. This union brought forth one son, Bruce Hughes II and later had her baby girl Johanna Hughes.

Zenola had a kind and giving spirit! Known as “the life of the party,” she enjoyed singing, traveling, and time with family. Most importantly, bossing everyone around even in her last days.
