

Mrs. Zeola King - Mitchell

July 27, 1949 - August 19, 2015

In Remembrance Of Our Beloved Zeola Mitchell:

Zeola King was born on July 27, 1949 in Jackson, Alabama to the late Mr. Frank King, Jr. and Mrs. Mary Louise King. Zeola's husband, Sim Mitchell, Jr., her father, Rev. Frank Mitchell, Jr., her father and mother-in-law, Sim Mitchell, Sr., and Annie Bell Mitchell, one sister-in-law, Dorothy Ann Mitchell and one brother-in-law, Bobby Mitchell preceded Zeola in death.

Zeola was raised in a Christian rooted home and accepted Christ at an early age. Zeola was educated in the Alabama School system.

Zeola King met and married Sim "Buddy" Mitchell, Jr. and from this union three children were born.

Buddy and Zeola "Koot Nannie," moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1973, where Zeola became a lifetime member of Greater Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church until her demise.

Zeola was a loving and devoted wife of 49 years, a wonderful mother, sister, daughter, and friend.

"Z" could play cards for days at a time, whenever she wasn't enjoying her cross word puzzles. But everyone knew "Z" for playing her "oldies but goodies." You could hum any song and "Z" could name the artist and the year the song was made. Nothing could compare to the enjoyment of spending time with her family and friends. Between her sister and brother traveling to visit her from Cleveland, Ohio, she was guaranteed to take her yearly trip to Alabama to enjoy her mother's big birthday bash. "Z" enjoyed everyone and all children were an apple in her eye. After her long battle with her illnesses, God saw she was tired and called her home to rest August 19, 2015 at Sinai Grace Hospital of Detroit, Michigan.
